The accommodation comprises in brief; entrance hallway with stairs rising to the first floor, living room with bay window providing aspect to the front and a wood burning stove. The kitchen/dining room is found at the rear of the house and offers a good selection of matching wall and base storage units with roll edge work surfaces, a Belfast sink, an integrated washing machine, space for a gas/electric range cooker and space for a fridge/freezer. On the first floor there are three bedrooms and a family bathroom comprising low level wc, wash hand basin, panelled bath with shower over and a heated towel rail.

Externally, there is a good size South facing rear garden which is predominantly laid to lawn and patio with a selection of mature flower and shrub borders. There is also a side pedestrian access and a rear pedestrian access. To the front of the property there is a further area of garden laid to lawn, which subject to the necessary planning permissions could create a driveway to provide off road parking.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

'8. Financial Evaluation 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act.8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
