Full Description

Nestled within this quiet cul-de-sac setting, this stunning three bedroom family home has been completely renovated and modernised by the current owners. Boasting an enviable location within Walmley, the home enjoys close proximity to a plethora of amenities including shopping facilities, highly regarded local schools, convenient commuting links, and nearby parkland walks.

THE FORE

Approaching the property, a block-paved driveway greets you, offering secure off-road parking facilitated by a telescopic security post discreetly recessed into the drive. Flanking this driveway is a meticulously maintained fore garden, while an up-and-over garage door provides seamless internal access to the spacious garage and the secure front entrance, recessed within a canopy storm porch, is situated adjacent.

GROUND FLOOR

Upon crossing the threshold through the newly installed secure front entrance door, you are welcomed into an inviting entrance hall. From here, the eye is drawn to the stunning living room, adorned with a bow window overlooking the front aspect. The room exudes contemporary charm, featuring a modern upright column radiator, generous floor space for free-standing lounge furniture, and a glass door seamlessly connecting to the breakfast kitchen.

The heart of the home, the breakfast kitchen, has too been transformed and offers a modern space with superb functionality. A central island beckons family gatherings and social engagements, while a tasteful array of matching wall and base units, complemented by feature glass-fronted display cabinets, offers ample storage and workspace. Built-in appliances enhance convenience, and a door leads to the side courtyard patio, providing access to the garage rear entrance, whilst French doors lead out from the kitchen into the main rear garden.
