Little Rissington

Nestled in a picturesque village setting, this character cottage is likely very close to most people's idea of idyllic country living. Enjoying remarkable unspoilt views of the surrounding countryside, this charming property offers a tranquil retreat while still being conveniently close to local amenities. The south-facing aspect fills the interior spaces with natural light, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

On the ground floor is a smartly appointed kitchen leading to a generous living room. Over two further floors there are four bedrooms and a family bathroom. Unusually for a property of this age and nature, there is a wealth of storage on each floor, so the accommodation flows nicely. The outside space of this property is designed for relaxation and enjoyment. The carefully landscaped grounds offer a sense of seclusion, providing a great space for outdoor activities and gatherings. There are two lawned areas, various patio space with further potential, and two off-street parking areas.

In all we think this is a superb cottage, which particularly may lend itself to holiday let investors or those seeking a pied a terre.
