Arranged over four floors, the property is spacious throughout, and although in need of major refurbishment, could really provide an amazing family home/rental opportunity. The accommodation is also extremely versatile with eight large rooms in total, providing the freedom to redesign it as you please. Additionally, each floor has the potential to be converted into separate apartments, subject to the necessary consents. The property further benefits from period features throughout, including bay windows, high ceilings, and original cornicing. Worthy of particular mention is the good sized, east-facing garden, which is very rare for a property situated in such a central position.
