2 Church Street, Godalming, GU7 1EH

LOCATION

Godalming is an affluent town south of Guildford, benefitting from a bustling retail sector well complimented by the Waitrose Supermarket, various independent and blue-chip retailers and coffee shops and public houses. Church Road runs adjacent to the main high street, meeting at the pepperpot – a Grade-II listed building of notoriety in the town. Neighboring retail units are well occupied and varied.

DESCRIPTION

Based entirely on the ground floor with a single-step entrance, the unit is complimented with a grade-II listed frontage with curved windows and painted wooden door to the front. Internally the unit is a rectangular space, currently arranged with a cloak room hidden at the rear. A small storage space and WC unit is hidden behind a sealed door.
