A beautifully presented three bedroom semi-detached home which benefits from magnificent views over fields to the rear. The property has a modern kitchen and bathroom as well as a spacious living room leading to the dining room. The rear garden is mature and has a decent patio and mainly lawned area. Upstairs the three bedrooms are of a good size. The house is conveniently located in this popular close in between Blackwater and Sandhurst where you can find a decent range of shops and amenities as well as good local schools and attractive countryside.
