THE PROPERTY:

A superbly presented recently decorated three bedroom semi-detached bungalow with far reaching views across the Somerset Levels, culminating in the Mendip Hills in the distance.

The bungalow is spacious throughout and also enjoys a private south facing rear garden. The property is double glazed and has oil fired central heating throughout.

The accommodation includes a large entrance hall which historically has been extended and now includes additional storage space/utilities' area. This provides access to the rest of the bungalow which includes a generous size living room with far reaching views across the Somerset Levels and Brent Knoll. The kitchen is well fitted with a range of wood fronted base and wall cupboards and contrasting rolltop working surfaces. Built within is a double oven, ceramic hob and hood together with recesses for various appliances.

There are three bedrooms all of which are well proportioned – one is currently used as a dining room. The bedrooms are complemented by a well fitted shower room with a large walk-in shower cubicle, basin and WC.

Outside – The gardens are of a reasonable size – the front comprising predominantly lawn whilst at the rear is a private area which comprises a patio, gravel and flower and shrub beds which benefits from a sunny southerly aspect.

Finally at the rear is a driveway and a garage.

LOCATION: Situated in the Polden Hill village of Woolavington. The village offers a range of facilities for day-to-day use including church, village hall, infant and junior schools and a Co-op convenience store. Bridgwater offers a wide range of amenities including retail, leisure and educational facilities. There are main line links via Bridgwater Railway Station. Regular bus services run to Taunton, Weston-super-Mare and Burnham-on-Sea from Bridgwater Bus Station together with a daily coach service to London Hammersmith.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
