Refurbished Former Warehouse in London's Archway District

- Reimagined former warehouse building
- Modern architecturally designed lighting
- Fourth floor unit includes a private terrace with panoramic views over London
- Large factory-style windows
- Up to 14 parking spaces available (by separate arrangement)
- First floor unit is fully fitted
- Access to private courtyard

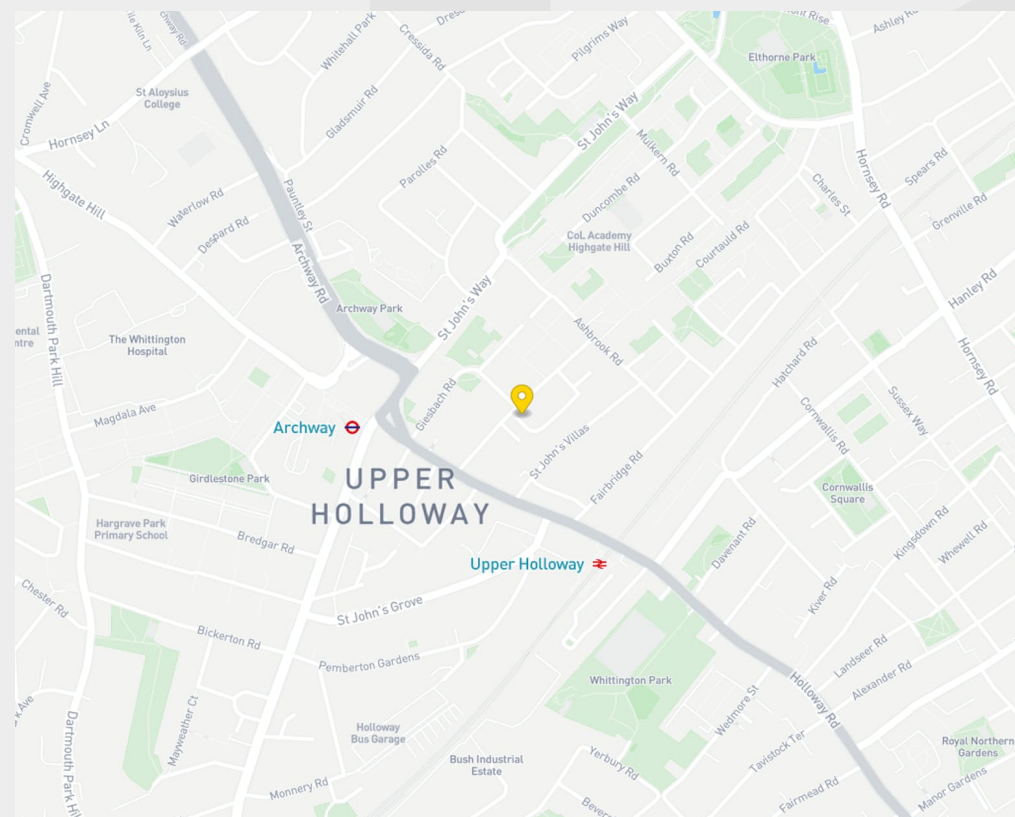

Description

The property benefits from a newly remodelled stylish reception lobby and part of an imposing former industrial building. The first floor benefits being fully fitted and furnished, and the 4th floor has a private terrace with panoramic views of London. Both units benefit from access to a private courtyard and there are up to 14 parking spaces available by separate arrangement.

Location

The building is located in the heart of London's Archway district, which is home to a number of independent businesses, artisanal coffee shops & eateries, a new art gallery, and the University of Arts London. It is just a few minutes walk to Archway (Northern Line) and Upper Holloway (Overground) stations, meaning that you can be the West End, City, or Midtown in less than 15 minutes.
