

WELCOME TO OLD STREET

WORKSPACES FOR BUSINESSES WHO CARE ABOUT PEOPLE

FOR PEOPLE & PLANET

We genuinely care about our team, our communities, and our environment - and we're currently awaiting our B Corp certification to prove it!

FOR A FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE

Our dedicated membership team not only know your name, but they'll tell everyone they know, too. We're your number one fan, always here to promote your business however we can.

FOR SMALLER BUSINESSES

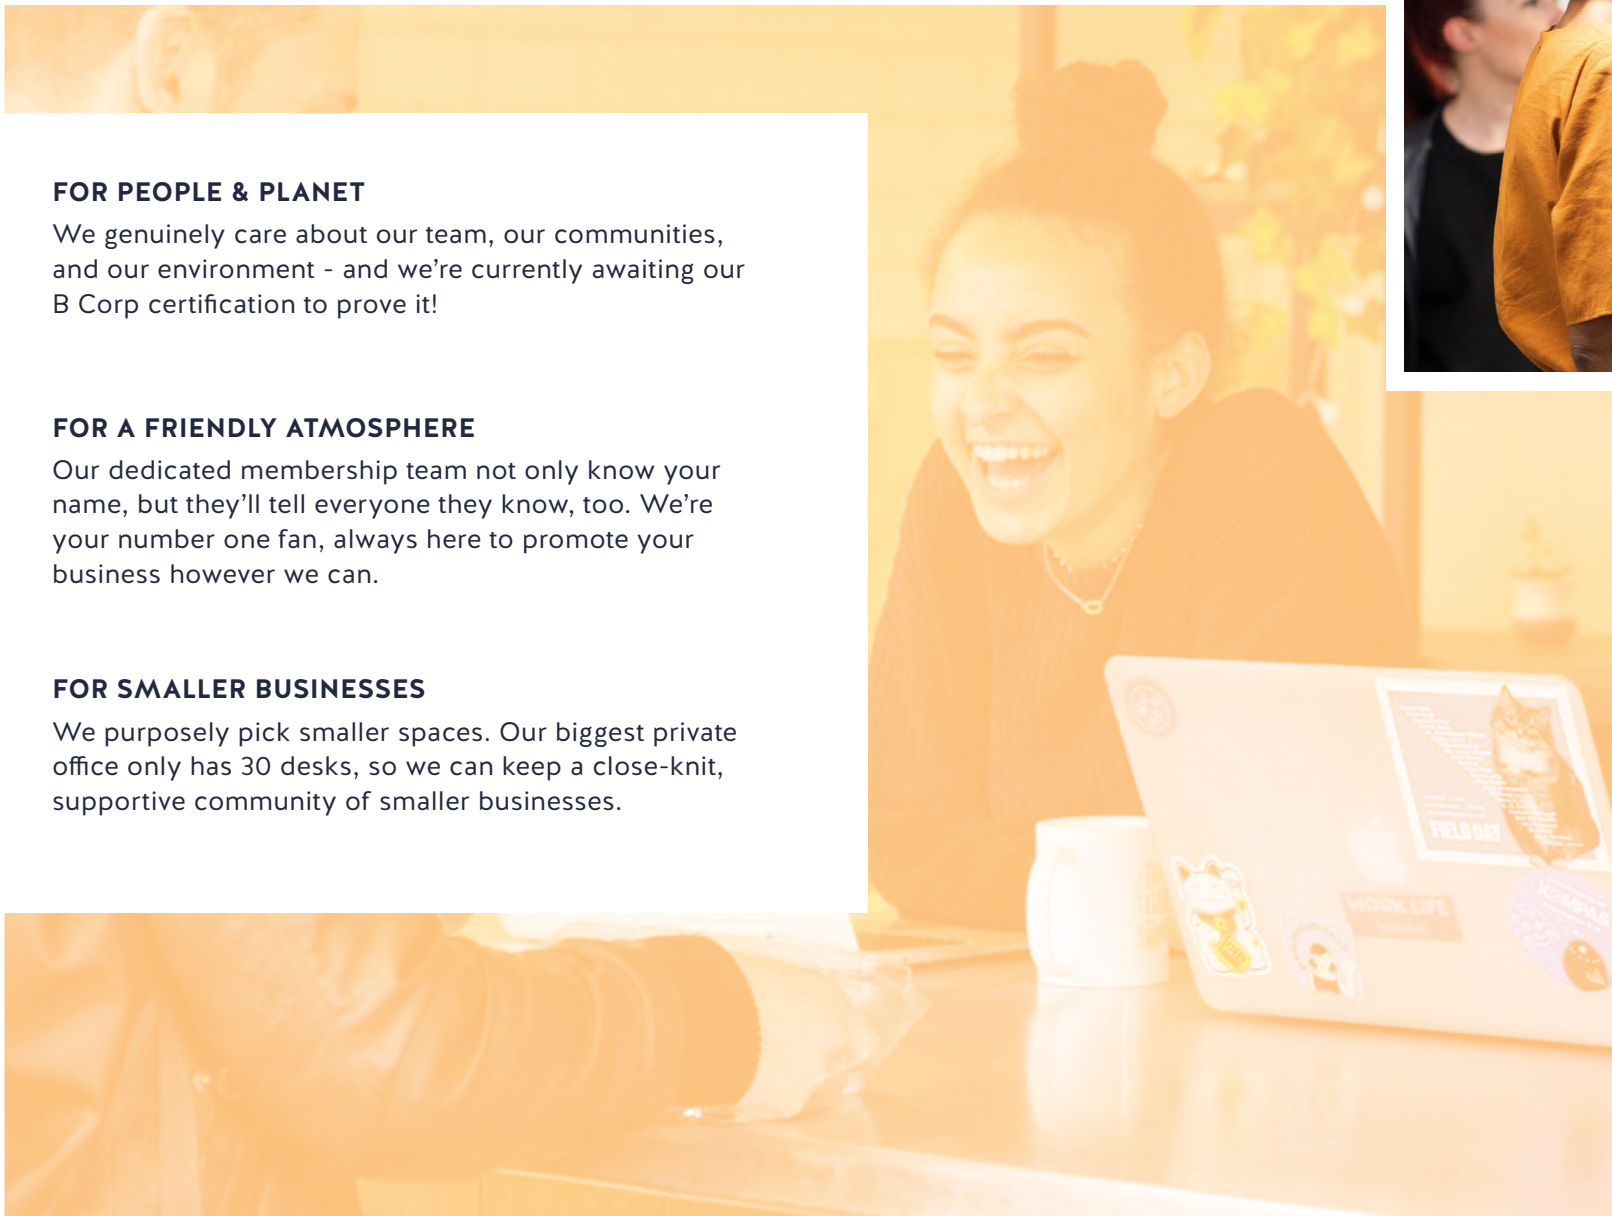

We purposely pick smaller spaces. Our biggest private office only has 30 desks, so we can keep a close-knit, supportive community of smaller businesses.

An office is no longer a place to simply work. Your team need a space to collaborate and be inspired.

Like you, we recognise our business' success is hinged on our team's happiness. Everything we do is designed to keep your people happy, engaged and productive at work, which delivers measurable benefits to you and your team.

Why do we create intelligently designed, service-led workspaces? To help your business (and your people) thrive.

THE SPACE

A great work environment can help your business grow.

All our spaces are carefully designed to help your team collaborate, socialise and work productively, with open plan hot desking areas, meetings rooms, sound-proof phone booths and plenty of bright breakout space. Work.Life spaces are designed for freelancers and smaller businesses to thrive.

We pride ourselves on our close-knit communities, unbeatable personal service, and truly terrific locations. We're always accessible from the ground floor, so we're in amongst the action of the local area. We provide functional and beautiful workspaces to impress clients or potential employees alike. Whether you're popping in for a quick meeting or taking a full-time office with us, you'll get the whole Work.Life experience from the moment you step through our doors.

WORK HAPPIER

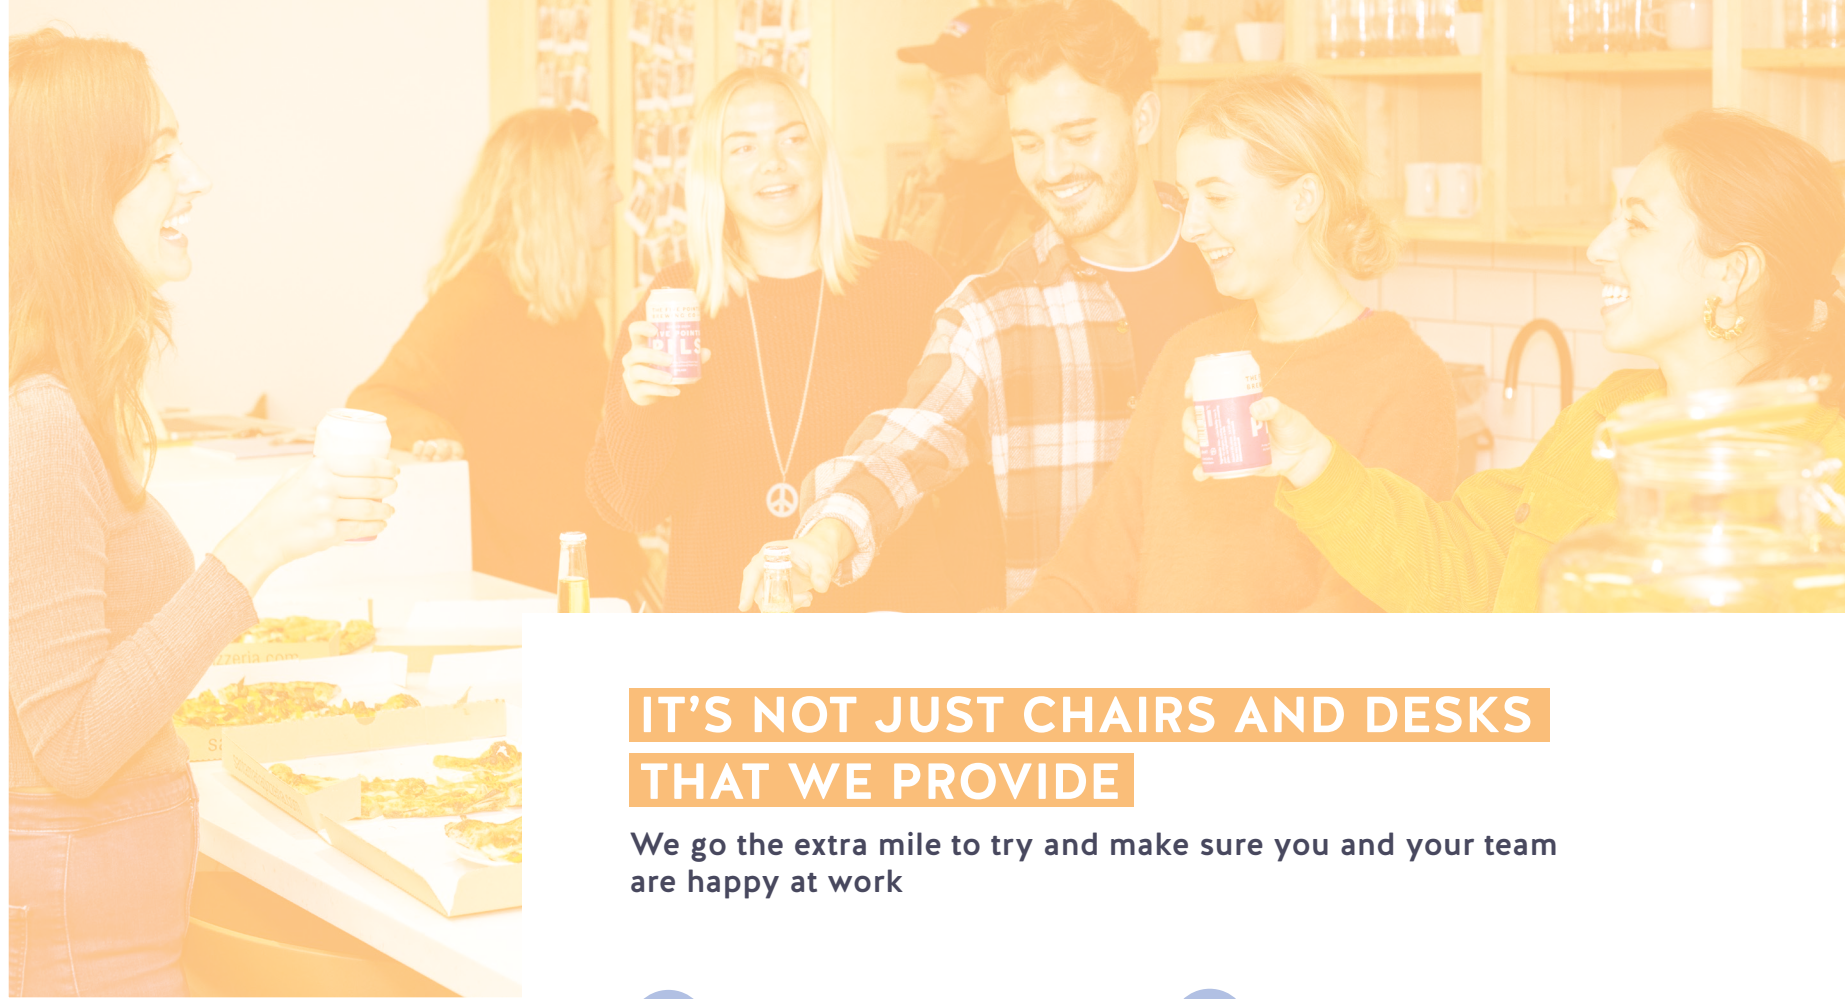

We pride ourselves on building more than just a place to get your head down. We put our members' mental and physical wellbeing at the forefront of what we do and forge happy, collaborative communities of good humans, who feel excited and energised in their professional lives.

There's plenty of opportunity to engage with your fellow Work.Lifers, whether that's at a beer and pizza evening or putting your heads together to plan the next charity fundraiser.

If geography isn't on your side then our Work.Life member portal gives you the opportunity to get in touch with the entire Work.Life community - perhaps you're looking for advice, or maybe even a new business partner - the Work.Life portal is your oyster.
