12 Eastfields Close is a detached 3 bedroom bungalow sited on a larger than average corner plot with favourable, bright East West aspects. Situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac, this location is most convenient for access to all local amenities including supermarkets, doctors surgery, pharmacy, library and Lynnsport, all of which are within a short walking distance. The bungalow benefits from gas fired radiator central heating, double glazing throughout, a recently fitted modern kitchen and additional conservatory. The rear garden is a particular feature being delightfully private and is low maintenance having been laid mostly to lawn with a paved patio area and timber built canopy off the conservatory. King's Lynn is a historic market town, once part of the Hanseatic League, in West Norfolk. The town provides residents with various shopping facilities, both in the town and on the Hardwick Retail Park, transport links with mainline train station with line to London Kings Cross via Ely & Cambridge and A47 trunk road to the nearby cities of Norwich & Peterborough. The renowned North Norfolk coastline is also within close proximity, as is the Royal Sandringham Estate.
