Property

From the pavement you walk through the main entrance into a private passageway and to your right a door opens into the hallway of the cottage. Immediately to your left, tucked away is a neat cloakroom with low level w/c, wash basin and this room also houses the gas boiler. Stairs to the first-floor lead up to your right. Taking the second doorway on your left you will find the kitchen. With ample wall and base units with worktops along two walls you will also find a sink with drainer, an integrated dishwasher, washing machine and free standing cooker with extractor over, and space for a tall fridge-freezer. To the end of the hallway a door opens into the spacious reception room, with patio door to the garden on one wall and a cast iron fireplace, with coal effect electric heater to the opposite side of the room. A high ceiling and exposed beams really sets the scene in this comfortable, light space. Taking the stairs you will find yourself on a short landing with a bedroom at either end and bathroom in the middle. The main bedroom is a generous double room and benefits from integrated storage. The second bedroom is also a double and also boasts it's own built-in storage cupboards. The bathroom is equipped with a bathtub into the eaves, a shower cubicle, toilet and a wash basin.

Outside

Behind the cottage is a sizable paved courtyard garden, that can be accessed directly via the passageway or down some steps from the patio door. The boundary is marked by a combination of high garden walls and the neighbouring properties, creating a secure space to enjoy. Parking is provided by a separate garage in a block, located not far from the cottage.
