Location: The property forms part of the attractive rural hamlet of Garth Row which is about two miles north of the market town of Kendal, just off the A6 Shap Road. Garth Row is surrounded by glorious countryside and is close to the beautiful valley of Longsleddale, which is within the Lake District National Park. There is a highly regarded primary school at nearby Selside and the historic market town of Kendal provides an excellent range of amenities.

From Kendal head north out of the town on the A6 Shap Road. After about three miles turn left into a country lane signposted to Garth Row. Follow the lane into Garth Row and at a crossroads turn right. Low Rigg Barn is the first house on your right-hand side.

Property Overview: Stepping into a light and airy entrance hall with a double glazed door and full height side panel and window to the stairs with deep sill and open views. Exposed lintels and an open staircase to lower ground floor. Useful shelved linen cupboard.

Straight ahead is the open plan living room. A pleasant room with a vaulted ceiling and exposed truss and purlins. This room offers open views across the surrounding countryside to the distant Lakeland fells. Attractive slate fireplace and hearth with multi fuel stove. Open to:

The kitchen. Fitted with a range of wall and base units with complementary working surfaces with inset stainless steel sink and drainer and co-ordinating part tiled walls. Kitchen appliances include; Miele halogen hob and dishwasher and Neff built in oven, microwave. An alcove for fridge freezer. Adjoining the kitchen is the utility/pantry with plumbing for washing machine and shelving.

On the lower ground floor you will find a hallway, two good sized bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room and a bathroom.
