“A spacious & individual three bedroom detached chalet, offering proportionate & attractive gardens & ample off-road parking.”

Description

About the Area

Elmsett is a well-served village approximately three miles from the lovely market town of Hadleigh and seven miles from Ipswich where there is a direct rail link to London's Liverpool Street Station, as well as north to Norwich and across the county to Bury St Edmunds and further. Access to the major road networks are also easy with the A12 and the A14, both being just a 10 minute drive away from the village and offering quick links to London and the M25, the Midlands and M11. There is a Ofsted 'Good' rated primary school, family run public house, village store, and a garden nursery. The thriving county town of Ipswich is set on the estuary of the River Orwell and has undergone an extensive gentrification programme in recent years, mainly around the waterfront and has become a popular "commutable" town to London. It offers a wide variety of shopping, commercial and leisure facilities including a full range of sports clubs and societies, restaurants and high street stores. There is an excellent choice of schooling within both the state and private sectors. Excellent sailing and golfing facilities are both available nearby or on the popular Suffolk Heritage Coast.
