Property Description

LOCATION

35 Ringmore Road sits in an enviable position, a short level walk away from Shaldon's amenities and the sandy estuary beach. The village has a strong sense of community and nestles beautifully between the sandy estuary beach and the pretty hills above. There are independent shops and cafes, a good selection of public houses and restaurants and a charming foot passenger ferry across to the seaside town of Teignmouth. Additional amenities include an Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated primary school, The Ness House Hotel and a bowling green surrounded by pretty cottages. There is a well supported annual regatta and water carnival as well as a rowing and sailing club. There is good walking on the south west coast path and the wonderful Ness Beach is accessed via a tunnel. The village even has a small zoo! Teignmouth is just over a mile away and has a lovely promenade with a classic Georgian crescent and a range of education options including Trinity School, offering both private primary and secondary education. In addition there is a mainline rail link to London Paddington.

DESCRIPTION

35 Ringmore Road is a three-storey period style semi-detached property, currently arranged as two-storey principal accommodation on the lower floors and an upper floor apartment, which is separately approached from Topcliff Road. The principal accommodation is beautifully presented and, at entrance level, has an entrance vestibule, a reception hall, three good size bedrooms and a modern bathroom. At first floor level there are some outstanding views towards the estuary and beyond. There is a dining space, being a lovely entertaining space with a study area. The sitting room has a feature fireplace and there is a beautifully presented kitchen with an extensive range of units having a comprehensive range of good quality integrated appliances. The apartment, Heron's Rest, has provided good letting income over the years and is currently arranged as an open-plan, triple aspect sitting/dining room that opens to the kitchen and balcony with the windows and balcony enjoying stunning estuary views from an elevated perspective. Outside to the front of the property the forecourt provides parking for two, potentially three vehicles, and there is a paved courtyard style garden/entrance terrace.
