16 Bonnar Road

Selsey, Chichester

Nestled in the sought-after western side of Selsey, this semi-detached character house offers three bedrooms, two bathrooms, and a character features across a deceptive plot.

Upon arrival, the property impresses with its generous frontage and parking, a rare and highly valued feature in this desirable locale. The landscaped gardens, adorned with artificial lawns and well kept borders provide a harmonious balance of beauty and convenience, perfect for relaxation and entertainment alike.

Stepping inside, the open plan living and sitting rooms welcome you with an air of charm. The sitting room, currently utilised as a bedroom, offers versatility and adaptability to cater to your changing needs.

Throughout the property, character features abound, including wooden flooring, picture rails, high ceilings and feature fireplaces, all combining to create a warm and inviting ambience coupled with modern touches such as underfloor heating in the sitting room & ground floor shower room as well as a log burning stove in the living room.

For added security and convenience, the property is equipped with electric wooden gates that open to reveal a sizeable driveway, providing parking for approximately six cars. This thoughtful feature ensures both privacy and practicality, adding to the overall allure of the home.
