Set on this quiet residential road comes this three double bedroom semi-detached family home, perfect for first time buyers and offering great potential to be extended (stpp). Ideally located the property is walking distance to all nearby amenities, including a parade of shops, local schools and only a short journey away from Hounslow West Tube Station.

Internally the house consists of a through lounge, a wide separate kitchen, a conservatory, an upstairs bathroom and a separate WC. There is also a front garden as well as a long rear garden and a shed which is ideal for storage. Viewings are highly recommended, please contact us for further information.
