INTRODUCTION

No' 77 High Street is conveniently located within the main shopping thoroughfare of the Galloway town of Dalbeattie. The premises comprises of a two-storey building and is such that it could easily be changed to accommodate many different types of businesses or indeed as an investment opportunity for an investor that could be easily rented out to provide a good return. In addition, there may be some development potential for change of use to residential or indeed mixed commercial and residential. The property was originally the Clydesdale Bank building and in more recent years has operated as a successful beautician's business.

Given that the property was once home to the Clydesdale Bank, an ATM is still in use providing a rental income stream of around £2,600 per annum to the owners of No' 77 High Street, this contract is renewed on an annual basis.

A range of local services can be found within Dalbeattie, with a relatively new school providing education from nursery to secondary. The town also boasts a wide range of retail and professional services, along with a medical centre and leisure facilities. The regional centre of Dumfries, only a 20-minute drive from Dalbeattie.

This area is a popular tourist destination lying within close proximity to the communities of Colvend, Sandyhills, Rockcliffe and Kippford. There are many artists and crafts people within the area with the well-known artist town of Kirkcudbright within easy driving distance. Kippford, affectionately known as 'The Scottish Riviera', is a popular tourist destination and particularly popular with yachtsmen utilising its safe anchorage at the marina.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Dalbeattie Forest benefits from one of the 7stanes world-class mountain biking trails, making it the ideal location for enthusiastic mountain bikers. In addition, there are golf courses at Dalbeattie, Sandyhills, Kippford and the championship course at Southernness is situated just along the coast.

Communications to the area are much improved with the A75 trunk road providing quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. The ferry links to Northern Ireland run from Cairnryan at Stranraer with the international airports of Prestwick and Glasgow just within an easy drive from the property.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.
