9 WHITEHOUSE PARK, WICK

Enjoying a superb open outlook across Wick Bay, harbour and marina is this beautiful five-bedroom home with attractive terraced garden and garage. Situated in an elevated location the property is excellently placed being within comfortable walking distance to the town centre. Flat roofs have been replaced and recently installed cavity wall installation, solar panels and uPVC double glazed windows and doors all add to the appeal of the property. With oil central heating most rooms take advantage of the lovely outlook and accommodation comprises entrance hall with fitted storage, convenient WC and open plan staircase to the first floor. From here double doors open into the living room with wide box window, which in turn offers triple doors leading into the spacious open plan dining room and newly fitted Ashley Ann kitchen. An impressive and generous family room boasts glazed panels and double doors that lead onto the terrace providing an excellent outlook. Also to this floor is a contemporary fitted shower room with Ashley Ann suite, study, double bedroom and utility room. Upstairs are four bedrooms, two of which offer fitted storage, and a family bathroom. The well-designed and landscaped terraced garden is sure to appeal with expansive patio areas ideal for entertaining. With stunning vantages this generous family home offers flexible living accommodation and viewing is highly recommended.
