The property occupies a corner position on one of England's most famous and historic cobbled streets. Mermaid Street, in the heart of the Conservation Area of the Ancient Town and Cinque Port of Rye, renowned for its historical associations, medieval fortifications and fine period architecture. As well as its charm and history, the town has a comprehensive range of shopping facilities and an active local community, with the arts being strongly represented. Rye Arts Festival and Rye International Jazz Festival are both held annually. From the town there are local train services to Eastbourne and to Ashford International from where there are high speed connections to London St. Pancras (37 minutes). Sporting facilities in the area include golf at Rye, tennis at Rye Lawn Tennis Club with reputedly among the very best grass courts in the country, sailing on the south coast and many fine countryside and coastal walks.

An attached Grade II Listed period property of early fifteenth century origin with alterations in the sixteenth century presenting part colour washed and part weatherboard clad external elevations set with timber casement windows beneath pitched tiled roofs. Internal features include heavy exposed timber framing and a fine inglenook fireplace with a carved bressummer beam. Note: In common with many properties in Rye, Trader's Cottage is subject to a "flying freehold" whereby a part of the property passes above part of the adjoining property.

A front door with a leaded light pane to the upper section opens into a well-proportioned living room overlooking the cobbled way with exposed timber framing, stairs leading to the first floor, oak flooring and a massive inglenook fireplace with dressed stone jambs and a moulded timber lintel, the spandrels of which are decorated with rose and foliage carving.

An inner hallway leads to the double aspect kitchen/dining room, overlooking Traders Passage and Mermaid Street, with a good range of wall and base cabinets with a butler sink with mixer tap, white metro wall tiles, laminate work surfaces, an integrated dishwasher and fridge, built-in electric oven, four burner gas hob, stainless steel filter hood, matchboard panelling and an oak floor.

The utility/shower room has a tiled floor and fittings comprising a pedestal wash basin, w.c, fully tiled walk-in shower and plumbing for a washing machine and space for a tumble dryer. A rear door provides shared side access to Mermaid Street.

On the first floor, the landing has exposed studwork and a hatch to the roof space.

Bedroom One is double aspect with exposed timber framing. Bedroom Three has a double height window to the front, a raised ceiling, exposed timber framing including massive arched braces and a brick fireplace. A connecting door leads to Bedroom Two, overlooking Traders Passage, with exposed timber framing and a raised ceiling.

The fully tiled shower room has modern white fittings comprising a wash basin, wc and a walk-in rain shower with a bi-fold screen, rainforest shower with separate shower mixer taps.

Outside: Accessed from Mermaid Street is a full height cellar offering good space for storage.
