

Byron Way, Melton Mowbray

£350,000

An impeccably presented three bedroomed detached home, positioned to please within a quiet cul-de-sac location on the sought after "Poets Estate" within the northern fringes of town. This excellent family property offers excellent kerb appeal, a recently renovated interior and a low maintenance south-facing garden.

The property occupies a sizeable plot tucked away towards the end of Byron Way and poses excellent accommodation for all of the family. To the ground floor the property offers a generous dual aspect living room/diner benefitting from French doors to the south-facing garden; downstairs WC; a recently refitted high specification kitchen with a range of handleless eye and base level units, induction hob and double oven; sizable utility room with an abundance of cupboard space, with a door leading to the fully insulated garage/home office offering great potential for a fourth bedroom.

The first floor offers three bedrooms; the master benefitting from bespoke fitted storage and a sizable modern shower room. Externally, the vendors have re-configured the garden with low maintenance in mind, with numerous zoned areas for recreation and added borders for horticultural endeavours.
