Description

A well-presented detached five bedroom chalet style home located in one of the area's most prestigious residential areas with far reaching views towards the Quantock hills. The property combines modern fixtures and fittings together with character features which includes many bay windows and exposed wooden flooring. The dwelling is partially double glazed and has recently had a newly installed gas boiler. There are well tended gardens to the front and rear - the rear of which is south facing along with ample off-road parking and a garage alongside.

- Favoured village of Wembdon

THE PROPERTY:

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall, with stairs rising to the first floor and a useful cloaks' cupboard off. The living room is double aspect and enjoys views to the side and particularly fine views to the rear via French doors and a feature corner window which looks south west towards the Quantock Hills. In addition there is a separate dining room with a front aspect bay window together with a kitchen/breakfast room with oak style fronted base and wall cupboards and a built-in oven and hob. Finally on this floor are two double bedrooms and a bathroom.

On the first floor are three further bedrooms - one of which has outstanding views over the local countryside towards the Quantocks in the distance.

Outside - As previously stated are beautifully maintained lawns at the front and the rear along with a vegetable plot. Alongside the house is a driveway which leads to a garage with a separate WC off.

LOCATION: Situated in the sought after village of Wembdon on the favoured western side of Bridgwater, approximately two miles from the town centre. The village of Wembdon offers various facilities including a store, church and public house whilst junior and senior schools of high repute are close by. Bridgwater offers an extensive range of amenities along with main line railway link, daily coach service to London and access to junctions 23 and 24 of the M5 motorway.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
