An attractive detached stone house, located in the heart of this sought after National Park village.

Linden is a well- cared for and well- presented detached house offering nicely proportioned accommodation which amounts to almost 900 square feet. To the rear is a south facing, carefully landscaped, cottage style garden and unusually for the village has both a large garage (18' x 10') and off street parking.

In brief the accommodation amounts to; entrance hall, front facing sitting room and a breakfast kitchen to the rear. Upstairs is a large galleried landing, two double bedrooms and the house bathroom. Double glazed with gas fired central heating, the property is modernised and nicely presented throughout.

The house is set well back from the village street with a shared driveway leading up to the garage.

Adjoining the property is an outhouse, inside - the Worcester central heating boiler, shelving and storage space.

To the rear is a private block paved seating area, a water supply, and steps leading up to the garden with a further paved seating area. The sheltered, landscaped garden, has well stocked borders, lawn, and a number of established trees and shrubs.

Sinnington is a most sought-after village on the southern fringes of the North York Moors National Park. Located between the market towns of Pickering (4 miles approx) and Kirkbymoorside (4 miles approx). The village has the benefit of a primary school and a well regarded country pub and restaurant. Linden lies in the centre of the village set back from the main street.
