Description This eye-catching building occupies an elevated position overlooking Ambleside and enjoys the most superb panoramic mountain views sweeping around from the south of Loughrigg, to the high fells of the Fairfield Horseshoe in the north.

Being on the ground floor, the apartment sitting room opens out onto a beautiful patio area with breath-taking views over the village to the surrounding fells from the double glazed sliding patio doors. There is a cleverly concealed fold down double bed enabling the apartment to comfortably sleep four. The kitchen is fitted with a contemporary range of wall and base units with working surfaces incorporating a stylish sink unit with a mixer tap and having integrated Bosch appliances including an oven, microwave, automatic washer/dryer, undercounter fridge and freezer. Additionally there is a Zanussi dishwasher, and a Lamona ceramic hob with extractor hood over. The built in cupboard houses a Copperform hot water cylinder. The bedroom with its large picture window allows simply superb panoramic views of the Lakeland fells, and features a built-in headboard and bedside cabinets with a matching dressing table. There are double doors linking to the living room, and this bedroom enjoys its own stylish en-suite shower room including a Mira thermostatic shower, with fabulous wardrobe and storage facilities. The second bathroom includes a three piece suite comprising a panel bath with Mira shower over, wash hand basin set above a vanity style drawer unit, and a WC. Both the ensuite shower room and bathroom benefit from tiling to walls and floors and have underfloor heating (a treat for bare feet), illuminated sensor mirrors and heated ladder style towel rail/ radiators.

A reserved car parking space, lift access and communal gardens all add up to create a delightful lock up and leave retreat or holiday let in this beautiful part of the Lake District National Park.
