Property Description

SITUATION

Meran House is enviably positioned in a "tucked-away" residential location within around half a mile of Teignmouth town centre and promenade. Teignmouth is positioned on the lovely South Devon coastline, approximately 13 miles from the cathedral city and county town of Exeter. There is a fine promenade with sandy beaches, including a classic crescent of imposing Georgian buildings. There are boating opportunities on the estuary and the "back beach" has a selection of pubs and restaurants in a superb marine setting. The town has a wide variety of independent shops and cafes, along with several excellent public houses. There is a supermarket on the west side of the town, along with a theatre and bowling club close to the sea front. Teignmouth has several primary schools, along with a well-regarded secondary school/Community College, being a short walk away from Meran House, and Trinity School, being a private school offering both primary and secondary education. There is a mainline railway station offering a direct link to London Paddington. The junction to the A380 via the B3192 is just under 5-miles away, which can be used to access the A38 and the M5, offering an easy commute to Exeter and beyond.

DESCRIPTION

Meran House is an imposing detached Victorian property with a beautiful double bay frontage. The expansive accommodation has a large entrance porch with a workshop/studio leading off and there is an elegant reception hall with a high ceiling and cornice and the original staircase. There is an elegant sitting room with feature fireplace having log burning stove, a high ceiling with cornice and rose and a splayed bay window taking in some good views. The kitchen/breakfast room also has a bay window with good views and an attractive range of units, with this room also having a high ceiling with cornice and rose. Leading off this there is a garden room/utility with a cloakroom/WC. The rooms set at the rear of the property can easily be arranged as a self-contained annexe if required but currently comprise a lobby, a lounge, a separate dining room, a kitchen/breakfast room along with a bedroom and shower room. Additionally to the ground floor, access can be gained to useful cellar rooms from under the stairs, with one of these currently serving as an additional workshop. To the upper floor, many of the rooms have tremendous views taking in parts of the town, the sea, various coastal features and a sweep of the Teign Estuary. Three of the first floor bedrooms have modern en-suite shower rooms with the fourth bedroom having an en-suite WC. Leading off a mezzanine landing, there is a further bedroom and a luxury five-piece family bathroom. Meran House has good sized, mature gardens and grounds. To the front of the property set below the bays, there is a terrace extending to a deck, providing a wonderful spot to sit and contemplate the surroundings. Set below this there is a broad sweep of lawn and there is a good quality, large external studio/workshop. Additionally there is a lovely range of mature shrubs and flowering plants, to include palms and a magnolia. Approached from Third Drive there is an expansive parking area providing parking for several vehicles and there is a paved entrance courtyard with a log store beside, along with well as rear and side gardens. In addition there is a unexpectedly large garage/workshop with a large garage area having a workshop set to the rear. Adjoining this there is a potting shed and there is also a greenhouse and a further shed.
