

THE PAVILION

AT SUNNINGDALE PARK
ROYAL BERKSHIRE

Set over 79 acres in an idyllic corner of the Royal County of Berkshire, Sunningdale Park is a country estate
re-imagined for 21st century living

When you first see Sunningdale Park, you will marvel at the stunning views over the expansive parkland with its open fields, woodland, walled garden and lake. Many of our homes are historic estate buildings that will be lovingly restored and sympathetically converted to reside in harmony alongside a range of new houses and apartments.

Meander amongst the meadow grassland and woodland trails with its abundance of wildlife. Admire the 500-year-old chestnut tree, one of almost 10,000 trees that populate the estate. Glimpse Northcote House, a neo-Georgian mansion, tucked in a quiet corner of the parkland as it peeks through the treetops.

All this beauty and tranquillity is on the very doorstep of homes built to Berkeley's exacting standards. Step into Sunningdale Park and see a special place where a spectacular landscape and the captivating history of a country estate form the backdrop for a new and thriving community.

The Pavilion

Nestled in the western corner of Sunningdale Park, The Pavilion is an exclusive collection of 15 two and three bedroom contemporary apartments. This striking building has been designed to blend with the existing contours of the setting, with gently stepped terraces providing generous spaces from which to enjoy the wonderful views.

The Pavilion has two key elements, with the front western elevation facing Larch Avenue sharing the same formality of style, whilst the rear eastern elevation responds to the parkland, following the natural curve of the landscape. The contrast in the building creates a highly dynamic space that adds interest from the different viewpoints.

Complementing the architecture, the interiors are distinctive through their elegant simplicity and clean lines, with bold accent colours and features adding a touch of drama. The minimalist styling is the perfect balance to the dramatic scenery beyond.

The Pavilion Apartments & Penthouses
