The property is located in the market town of Wymondham, and within close proximity to a very good range of everyday amenities including shops, leisure centre and doctors surgery. Situated approximately 10 miles south west of Norwich, fantastic access leads to the A11. The town also has a train station with Norwich to Cambridge railway lines. Excellent schooling can be found at Wymondham College & Wymondham High School, both are highly thought of within the area.

SETTING THE SCENE

The property is located to the right of the main building accessed by heading down the paved pathway where you will find the door to your left clearly numbered. Here you can also find the more than handy external storage unit ideal for deliveries and additional items not suitable for internal storage.

THE GRAND TOUR

Just passed the front door are the stairs leading to the accommodation with carpeted flooring leading the way. At the top of the stairs the property opens up whilst offering the ideal spot to hang your coats and slip off your shoes before heading in. Firstly to your right is the kitchen which offers wall and base mounted storage, set around complimentary rolled edge work surfaces which give way to the inlet for an electric oven and hob and stand alone fridge/freezer plus plumbing for the washing machine and a handy breakfast bar. The main living accommodation is a well-lit open plan area with both a sitting and dining room spaces with the open space leaving room for interpretation when it comes to potential lay out.
