50 Kingsley Drive, Harrogate, North Yorkshire, HG1 4TH

An imposing double-fronted three-bedroom detached family house with a large frontage overlooking open countryside, whilst being just under a mile from Harrogate town centre.

This super property has been well maintained and offers well-presented accommodation, with the benefit of a conservatory extension to the rear and solar panels with battery storage. The property has gas central heating and double glazing, and the attached garage has been converted to provide a ground-floor shower room / WC, store and utility area.

Highly convenient and popular residential district of Harrogate, well served by the shops and services of Knaresborough Road. The property is also close to primary and secondary schools. An early inspection is recommended.
