The property

Queensgate House provides an unrivalled opportunity to purchase what we believe is a property set in one of the best locations within the Wentworth Estate. The property, built approximately 20 years ago in 2004, was architecturally dramatic at its time and retains this dramatic look.

The property has good ceiling heights, underfloor heating, some air conditioning and a large indoor pool flooded with natural light. The property also benefits from planning consent allowing a ground and first-floor extension, which would further complement the already extremely positive accommodation.

Gardens and grounds

The grounds are a particular feature of the property, with privacy being key. From the entrance gate, you get a glimpse of the house and it opens to a winding driveway leading to a large circular approach, which in turn leads to a parking area to the side, garaging and staff flat. The rear gardens, which face west, are dramatic and interesting, with a tennis court, feature ponds with fountains, a koi carp pond and a variety of formal gardens and lawned areas together with lightly wooded feature areas.

The property backs the Wentworth Golf Club, thus having no properties directly behind. Being on Portnall Rise you are central to the Wentworth main island and a short distance from the club with all the sporting and social benefits that it provides.

Location

The prestigious Wentworth Estate extends to around 1,750 acres and dates back to the early 1920s when the rural dream of developer W J Tarrant became a reality, creating large houses in beautiful mature gardens surrounding the golf course.

Lying within the green belt, the Wentworth Estate is now a sanctuary of impressive houses on quiet roads surrounded by three 18-hole championship golf courses and a 9-hole executive course. The Wentworth Club, situated in the middle of the estate, is world-renowned and has recently been the subject of a major renovation programme offering swimming pools, tennis courts, a health and leisure club, as well as superb dining.
