About this property

This spacious three double bedroom apartment is located in arguably South Kensington's most prestigious garden square. The property is entered on the third floor of this handsome white stucco fronted building and boasts excellent natural light from the east and west facing views.

The layout offers balanced accommodation, with a large double reception room and generous separate kitchen/dining space, perfect for entertaining on one floor, with the three bedrooms and three bathrooms (two ensuite) on the floor above.

Of particular note is the residents' access to the much-revered communal gardens, available separately upon an application.

Local Information

The building is situated on the eastern terrace, which runs between Fulham Road and Old Brompton Road, ideal for the array of boutiques, cafes, restaurants and museums, all within close proximity.

Excellent transport links to a number of key employment hubs, particularly the West End, The is approximately 0.1 miles away from South Kensington Underground Station which features the District, & Circle and Piccadilly lines.
