in every detail and finish

This charming bungalow in Edinburgh presents a unique blend of comfort and style, nestled in a serene suburban neighbourhood. It features an appealing white facade complemented by lush green lawns and tidy garden spaces, which are enclosed by a pristine white fence enhancing its curb appeal. The property boasts four cozy bedrooms and two modern bathrooms, catering well to family living.

The interior of the bungalow is tastefully decorated, showcasing elegant living spaces with contemporary furnishings and decor. Key highlights include a stylish living room with a plush grey sectional sofa, accented by chic, patterned wallpapers that add a vibrant yet sophisticated touch to the room. The space is well-lit, thanks to large windows that also offer pleasing views of the quiet neighbourhood.

The kitchen is spacious and functional, equipped with modern appliances and ample cabinetry. It features a sleek, white colour scheme with striking red backsplashes that contrast beautifully against the pristine countertops. The design is completed by a large window that floods the space with natural light and provides an airy feel.
