Property Description

LOCATION

Highover Cottage is beautifully set in an elevated position within the Ringmore valley on the fringes of the highly sought after coastal village of Shaldon. The property is well placed, being a short walk away from the estuary foreshore and a good network of footpaths and bridleways for country walks. The village has a strong sense of community and nestles beautifully between the sandy estuary beach and the pretty hills above. There are independent shops and cafes, a good selection of public houses and restaurants and a charming foot passenger ferry across to the seaside town of Teignmouth. Additional amenities include an Ofsted 'Outstanding' rated primary school, The Ness House Hotel and a bowling green surrounded by pretty cottages. There is a well-supported annual regatta and water carnival as well as a rowing and sailing club. The south west coast path is immediately accessible to the village and the beautiful Ness Beach is accessed via a tunnel. Teignmouth is just over a mile away and has a lovely promenade with classic Georgian crescent and a range of education options including Trinity School, offering both private primary and secondary education. In addition there is a mainline rail link to London Paddington.

DESCRIPTION

Available to the market for the first time in a number of years, Highover Cottage is a particularly attractive, detached "Grade 2" listed period residence set in an enviable position. Beautifully maintained by the current owners the property has rendered elevations set beneath a Devon thatch with brow windows. The accommodation is surprisingly spacious and well laid out. The entrance door opens to the dining room, which has much character and charm and ample space for a large dining table and chairs. Leading off the dining room there is a well presented kitchen/breakfast room with a high quality range of units, oak block work surfaces and some integrated appliances, the kitchen also opens to a terrace at the rear of the property. The sitting room is another charming and spacious room with a feature fireplace and with this room being dual aspect with windows overlooking the approach lane and also having views over the lovely surrounding valley with glimpses of the estuary in the distance. To the first floor there are three appealing bedrooms with the principal bedroom being particularly spacious, as well as having a modern four-piece bathroom. The principal bedroom enjoys good views towards the estuary and the other two bedrooms also have open views too. The outside spaces are particularly lovely and the small front garden area is enclosed by feature railings. There is a side garden/entrance area which is paved and has well-stocked borders. To the rear, there is a raised paved terrace, this being a good spot to contemplate the surroundings and the good views. The rear garden is primarily paved and enclosed by character walling and has borders well stocked with shrubs and flowering plants. In addition there is a useful external SUMMERHOUSE with glazed double entrance doors, a good sized space with ceramic floor tiles and a modern shower room, ideal for when returning from days on the beach! Highover Cottage also has an ATTACHED GARAGE, with an electric roll up door.
