Description

A unique commercial space set within a spectacular modern conversion of a listed Neo Gothic church offering extraordinary height and drama. The restoration has been done with great care and the original features create a spectacular dramatic effect with a unique character and historical depth. The open plan ground and first floor spaces are suitable for offices, gallery, museum, media studios, photography/video film space, fashion and more. Entry to property via private driveway, automatic gates into a large car park, all adjacent to Haggerston Park.

Location

The property is directly adjacent to Haggerston Park at its Hackney Road entrance. Transport, whether by foot, bike, bus, overground and underground trains or cars is excellent. The car park provides level loading for deliveries and collections, individual parking spaces can be provided for an additional fee.
