Details

The first floor provides five double bedrooms (two with ensuite shower rooms) and a stunning and spacious main bathroom with claw footed roll top bath and separate shower enclosure. Outside

A wrought-iron gate leads to the side of the house where the front door can be found. The integral garage leads right down the side of the house via twin automated gates, a roller door to the rear gives access (should one wish) to turn a car around and head back out forwards, or just useful access.

Outside

The rear gardens is beautiful, being well stocked and private. A former coach house and stable now provide a workshop, store and gym and could be utilised as a lovely external office. There is superb entertaining and seating areas including a pretty pergola.

Situation

The property is situated on Stane Street (the A29), with a number of amenities within easy reach including a Sainsbury's superstore, butchers, restaurants and takeaways. There are further amenities within the nearby village of Pulborough, which has a good selection of shops, services and facilities including a health centre. The area is ideal for those that enjoy walking and riding with many interlinking footpaths and bridleways in the area. The station at Pulborough is about 1.5 miles and has mainline rail services (London Victoria & London Bridge).
