ACTIVITIES FOR EVERYONE

Less than half an hour away by train, Edinburgh with its beautiful architecture, iconic monuments and numerous cultural attractions is the jewel in the crown of the Lothians. Given its proximity, it is easy to take full advantage of everything that lovely city has to offer. But Edinburgh is by no means the only local draw: closer to Mayfield lies the old market town of Dalkeith with its historic centre dominated by what was once Scotland's largest corn exchange. Here, you can find Dalkeith Country Park, one of the most popular visitor attractions in the area. Home to Fort Douglas, an exciting children's adventure playground, and Restoration Yard, a place to shop, eat and relax, there are 1,000 acres of park to explore via a network of trails. And only a short hop away, Fort Kinnaird, an impressive out of town shopping centre boasts a great selection of shops, restaurants, cinema screens and a gym.

There is so much to do and see in Midlothian that you are always spoilt for choice. To the south east of Mayfield lies Vogrie Country Park, with children's activities organised throughout the year, a miniature railway and miles of paths. Some of the latter lead south to Crichton Castle, once home of the Earl of Bothwell, husband of Mary, Queen of Scots. The rolling hills and valleys of the area make it perfect for a whole range of outdoor pursuits to suit all levels of fitness and interests. Local walking routes take in sites of historic interest such as the Paper and Gunpowder walk near the Pentland Hills, cycling for both road and off-road enthusiasts and, for the really energetic, you can ski and snowboard all year round at the Midlothian Snowsports Centre.

HMS Britannia, moored at Leith on the Firth of Forth, is well worth a visit, as is Prestonpans the site of Bonnie Prince Charlie's victory over the forces of King George II. If you fancy a day out at the races, Musselburgh Racecourse is only six miles away. The National Mining Museum commemorates the long heritage of mining in the region; and you can also ponder the mystery of Gilmerton Cove with its subterranean network of passages, carved out of the sandstone by unknown hands. Rosslyn Chapel, to the west, is famous for its extraordinary stonework and beautiful stained glass windows – as well as being featured in Dan Brown's Da Vinci Code.

HOW TO PURCHASE

Buying a new Lovell home couldn't be easier. Follow our guide and you'll be home in no time!

CHOOSE AND RESERVE

Secure your new home with a reservation fee which goes towards the total purchase price. It's then reserved in your name while the legal processes are completed.

KEEPING THINGS MOVING

Pass our Sales Executive your solicitor's details so that we can send on the contract documents. Arrange your mortgage if you need one. You can do this yourself or we can put you in touch with an Independent Mortgage Advisor to help.

EXCHANGING CONTRACTS

Once you've had your formal mortgage offer, your solicitor will inform you when it's time to exchange contracts. You will now pay your deposit, which will be sent to us with your signed contract.

NEARLY THERE

Under the terms of the contract we need to allow time for financial completion. Once this has happened, we will ask your solicitor to request funds and pay the balance of the purchase price. The deeds are transferred into your name and you now own your new Lovell home!

MOVING IN

We will arrange for your meters to be read on the day of legal completion. Our Sales Executive will hand you the keys and a handover certificate.
