Property Description

DESCRIPTION

Lancaster House is a particularly appealing 1998-built detached residence set within the sought-after Lindridge Park development. Externally attractive, the property has feature brick elevations set beneath a slate roof and uPVC double glazed sash windows, many of which enjoy fantastic views over the Lindridge Park grounds and rolling countryside beyond. The accommodation extends to over 3000 sq ft and is well presented and laid out. At ground floor level a vestibule opens to the welcoming inner hallway and there is a beautiful drawing room with bay window and feature fireplace with log burning stove. The separate dining room is currently in use as a music room and has a lobby leading off to cloakroom/WC and opens to the garden. The kitchen/breakfast room is a stylish space, with the kitchen area being fitted with a high quality range of units with integrated appliances and feature marble effect composite worksurfaces. The kitchen opens to a sitting room, which in turn opens to the outside. In addition, the ground floor accommodation has a utility room with an internal door to the large double garage which has twin electric doors, power and light. To the first floor, the principal bedroom suite is a particularly appealing, light and spacious dual aspect room having built-in wardrobes and a concealed luxury four-piece en-suite bathroom. Bedrooms two and three also have built-in wardrobes and en-suite shower and bathrooms respectively and bedrooms four and five have a "Jack & Jill" shower room, with bedroom five currently being used as a study. The outside spaces are equally appealing. The sweeping brick paved driveway opens to an entrance canopy and has a particularly lovely front garden beside with shaped lawn, cherry tree and mature areas of bedding. The garden at the rear of the property is an absolute delight, being enclosed by brick and stone walling and shaped yew hedging and a gated arch gives direct access to the Lindridge Park grounds. The gardens have large expanses of two tier paved outside entertaining areas with awning, outside lighting and ornamental pond. There are shaped borders, beautifully stocked with roses, climbing roses and other flowering plants. Additionally there is a large expanse of lawn, a greenhouse and a garden room, ideal for drying etc.

SITUATION

Lindridge Park is a stunningly beautiful country house estate steeped in history, dating back to 1044. The grounds of the estate are set amongst beautiful rolling Devon countryside, just below Humber Down and the Little Haldon hills. Conveying a real sense of past grandeur, Lindridge is one of Devon's oldest manors and was converted in the early 1990's into high-end individual houses. The residents of the 21 properties at Lindridge Park benefit from access to and use of the 23 acres of private estate gardens and grounds, comprising a formal Italianate rose garden with pond and temple, a water garden with waterfall, spacious open areas, wooded walks and stone footpaths shaded by a wisteria adorned pergola and lush meadows etc. There is a heated swimming pool, a croquet lawn and tennis court for more active pursuits. The estate is surrounded by century old trees and enjoys far-reaching rural views. The setting offers great convenience with the cathedral city and county town of Exeter being set around 13-miles away, easily accessible via the A380, with its red brick university, private and public schools and the Princesshay shopping centre. For coastal pursuits and the beach, Teignmouth lies around 5-miles away and the local village of Bishopsteignton with its public houses, vineyard and village amenities is around 2 miles away. There is an 18-hole golf course around 2-miles away on the Little Haldon hills and Humber Barn offers a good local facility.
