INTRODUCTION

No' 41 Carlingwark Street is situated within the picturesque market town of Castle Douglas, conveniently located within an easy walking distance to all town centre amenities and the pretty Carlingwark Loch.

No' 41 Carlingwark Street offers well-presented and deceptively spacious family accommodation over two floors. The property has been run for many years as a successful holiday let and has been very well-maintained presenting modern, clean lines throughout and is in walk-in condition ready to add a personal stamp. A private enclosed courtyard garden grounds is to the rear, which during the summer months is the perfect place for alfresco dining and family or social entertaining.

As mentioned earlier, local services are conveniently located only a short walk to the thriving High Street of Castle Douglas (The Food Town), which offers all essential services and is renowned for its niche retailing with a wide range of traditional shops, delicatessens, craft beer and wine outlets, butchers, bakers' grocers, craft outlets, etc. In addition, Castle Douglas offers a bounty of activities throughout the year to include the Civic Week celebrations ending with a fantastic parade and the fabulous Soap Box Derby, both attracting thousands of visitors each year. Both primary and secondary schools are also available within the town along with a modern health centre and a wide range of professional services, as well as two national supermarkets.

Communications to the area are good with the property lying in close proximity to the main A75 Euro Route, which provides quick access from the south via the M6 & M74. Cairnryan, the ferry link with Northern Ireland is a little over an hour's drive via the A75 and the international airports of Glasgow & Edinburgh within an easy drive of the property. There are mainline railway stations at both Dumfries and Lockerbie.

This area of Southwest Scotland enjoys one of the most varied and picturesque landscapes within Scotland, ranging from the moorland of the Southern Upland Hills to the bays and sandy beaches of the distinctive coastline. This is a rural county where agriculture and tourism thrive to form the backbone of the local economy. The area has been relatively unscathed by modern industry.

The region is well-known for the quality and variety of both field sports and leisure activities with the outdoor and sporting enthusiast extremely well-catered for as there exist the ability to take both shooting and fishing locally. Given the diverse landscape along with the proximity to the coast and local lochs, the area offers unique walks, sailing, cycling and for the golfer there is an abundance of good local courses with the region boasting no fewer than twenty-nine courses, the closest being within Castle Douglas.

METHOD OF SALE

The property is offered for sale by Private Treaty.
