THE PROPERTY:

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall where stairs rise to the first floor with a useful cupboard under. Off is a cloakroom with WC and a basin. The living room is dual aspect and includes a mock fireplace. There is a large dining/family room with both a window and French doors to the rear garden with distant views across to Wales. Finally on this floor is a kitchen/breakfast room which has been well fitted and finished with cream fronted base units and contrasting rolltop working surfaces. There is an oven and hob and recesses for other appliances together with a newly installed gas fired boiler.

On the first floor the principal bedroom includes a dressing area with wardrobes and an en-suite shower room with a cubicle, basin, WC and a heated towel rail. The three remaining bedrooms are all well proportioned and are complemented by a bathroom which includes a white bath, with shower over, WC, basin and a heated towel rail.

Outside – There is a garage with a roller door and very pleasant gardens particularly at the rear which consist of a patio, lawn, gravel and a vegetable patch. It is sunny having a westerly aspect.

LOCATION: Situated in the Polden Hills village of Woolavington which offers a range of shopping facilities for day-to-day use. There is a local church, village hall, infant and junior schools. The M5 motorway junction 23 can be accessed without passing through the town centre. Bridgwater offers a wide range of amenities including retail, leisure and educational facilities. Main line railway links are available via Bridgwater Railway station. There are regular bus services to Taunton, Weston-super-Mare and Burnham-on-Sea together with a daily coach service to London.

Code of Practice for Residential Estate Agents: Effective from 1 August 2011:

8. Financial Evaluation: 8a At the time that an offer has been made and is being considered by the seller, you must take reasonable steps to find out from the prospective buyer the source and availability of his funds for buying the property and pass this information to the seller. Such information will include whether the prospective buyer needs to sell a property, requires a mortgage, claims to be a cash buyer or any combination of these. Such relevant information that is available should be included in the Memorandum of Sale having regard to the provisions of the Data Protection Act. 8b These reasonable steps must continue after acceptance of the offer until exchange of contracts (in Scotland, conclusion of missives) and must include regular monitoring of the prospective buyer's progress in achieving the funds required, and reporting such progress to the seller.

The agent has not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixtures and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are in working order or fit for their purpose. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their solicitor or surveyor. References to the Tenure of the Property are based on information supplied by the Seller. The agent has not had sight of the title documents. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor.
