This attractive double fronted stonebuilt cottage is set in a much favoured elevated position on Painter Wood, a beautiful semi-rural setting with fantastic outlooks, surrounding adjoining open fields and across towards Kemple End. The property is just a short distance to the nearby village of Whalley which offers a whole host of amenities including shops, hair salons, library, pubs, restaurants and a primary school which are all within walking distance. This cottage sits on the edge of Billington and is being offered to market with no onward chain with viewing highly recommended and is perfect for anyone looking for a hassle free move. The property is situated over two floors and is tastefully presented throughout with attractive new decoration, new carpets, many character features with exposed stone walls and wood beams and lovely internal doors. There is a sizeable lounge with a superb stone fireplace and multi fuel stove and tiled flooring with an oak style fitted breakfast kitchen. The first floor landing has lovely outlooks and a feature exposed stone wall, an attractive modern three piece bathroom and two excellent bedrooms, both of which enjoy attractive elevated outlooks.

Externally there is a front tarmac driveway with private parking for 1 car, indian stone flagged front garden forecourt, side stone pathways and stone shared bin storage. To the rear are steps up to a charming elevated stone flagged patio garden with side lawned area with superb distant views which pleasantly adjoins open fields and is not overlooked with rear shared pathway. An internal inspection is highly recommended.
