THE PROPERTY:

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall where stairs rise to the first floor and a superb living room with an open fireplace, a walk-in bay window and dado rail. The dining room is well proportioned and includes a fireplace and rear aspect bay window. Period features here include cornicing and coving to the ceiling. Finally on the ground floor is a kitchen/breakfast/family room. Within the kitchen area there is a range of modern natural wood style fronted units with marble style worktops and recesses for various appliances. To the opposite end of the room is a space for a family table and chairs along with armchairs etc. This room is particularly light and airy with sun cascading down from the ceiling and windows and doors which overlook the garden.

On the first floor are two very large double bedrooms, both with bay windows and one of which has glimpses over the local river. There are fireplaces to both rooms and these are complemented by an extremely well fitted bathroom and separate shower room.

On the second floor are two further bedrooms.

Outside – At the front is a small garden area and car parking space which leads to a garage/workshop. This is L-shaped and could be used for a variety of purposes. It also benefits from staircase which rises to a further boarded attic area which could provide an additional and useful space. The rear garden is larger than average and consists of lawn and patios together with rear pedestrian access.

LOCATION: The property is situated within the popular Somerset village of Combech. The village offers a thriving community with village store and post office, village school and church. Adjacent to Combech is the estuary of the River Parrett and Steart Marshes with rural views and walks can be enjoyed. The neighbouring villages of Cannington and Nether Stowey offer a more extensive range of services and shops. Bridgwater is approximately 5.7 miles away and offers a full range of shops, a cinema, restaurants and library. From Bridgwater bus station there are regular services to Taunton and Weston-super-Mare plus a daily coach service to London Hammersmith.
