Tucked away in a pretty little cul-de-sac position, with black painted, wrought iron railings delineating the boundaries. ‘The Orchard’ is an exclusive development of three properties, combining brick and flint and contemporary cladding with grey aluminium windows. Plot 3, The Elm, occupies a bottom of cul-de-sac position, with a delightfully private and enclosed rear garden, plus lawns to either side of the driveway.

“The property occupies a bottom of cul-de-sac position, with a delightfully private and enclosed rear garden.”

The property provides contemporary living at its best with its beautiful reception hall leading to the tility room and open-plan reception space and kitchen, providing dining and sitting areas flooded with natural light from the bi-fold doors and Velux roof lantern. Both sets of doors lead to the enclosed rear garden space. The remainder of the ground floor comprises a utility room and downstairs cloakroom.

The first floor accommodation boasts three double bedrooms and the principal room is complemented by an en-suite with double wash hand basins and the further bedrooms are served by the four piece family bathroom.

The driveway provides ample off road parking and the garage is integral with remote controlled door.

Viewing is highly recommended.

“This stunning detached house is designed to be energy efficient with its air source heating and solar panels, and the landscaped gardens are established with their mature planting.”

About the Developer

“Our name is inspired by time spent in Provence and the way in which the French way of life continues to inspire and influence our developments.”

Maison Chic bring a unique blend of clean design sensibilities and a commitment to quality construction to their projects. Inspired by the French way of life and residing in the tranquil Norfolk countryside. Partnering with local builder Charlie Haller, they strive to craft distinctive properties that seamlessly combine innovative materials with traditional construction. Their ethos revolves around creating unique homes that marry style with practicality, boasting spacious layouts, abundant natural light, and tasteful landscaping. Moreover, they are dedicated to environmental conservation, actively supporting various wildlife and countryside groups and charities. Through their development projects, they aim to strike a harmonious balance between creating inviting living spaces and caring for and protecting the environment.

ALL THE REASONS

Fakenham

IN NORFOLK
IS THE PLACE TO CALL HOME

Coast or country? If your heart is set on the gentle bustle of a market town, but within easy reach of the sea, Fakenham is top of the list. While sandy beaches are just ten miles away, the market town is perfectly positioned halfway between King's Lynn and Norwich with easy reach to Holt and Swaffham, making for an easy commute.

Out of working hours, there's plenty to keep you entertained including the thriving independent Central Cinema, a perennial favourite with locals. Enjoy a fun glass-blowing session with the kids at Langham Glass, reconnect with nature at Pensthorpe or blow the cobwebs with a walk at nearby Sculthorpe Moor.

For something fancier, dress up to the nines and enjoy a day out and a flutter at Fakenham Racecourse, or team up with your playing pals for a round at Fakenham Golf Club, set in and around the racecourse. And Thursford is just four miles away with its magnificent collection of steam engines and organs – a visit to its Christmas spectacular gives a West End theatre excursion a run for its money!

Make time to explore the Fakenham Lancaster Heritage Trail, a series of 32 plaques which bring the town's industrial past to life. Originally a vibrant agricultural centre, during the 19th century Fakenham rose to prominence as a major centre for printing – spot the printing blocks which have been set in the surface of the market place and date back to 1250. The stallholders still set out their wares every Thursday with a farmers' market on the last Saturday of the month.

From grand homes and character cottages to quality new-build houses, Fakenham has an excellent choice of property for all budgets, and on the outskirts of town there are plenty of period properties set on large plots for those looking for a little more space.

Foodies are spoilt for choice with locally farmed meat, produce and award winning Mrs Temple's cheese available to fill your pantry at nearby Walsingham Farm Shops. Save the washing up and dine out at The Ostrich Inn, which has been serving locals since 1841, or indulge at Sculthorpe Mill, which was awarded a Michelin Bib Gourmand in 2022, on the edge of town.

A brilliant location, exquisite properties waiting to be rediscovered and a growing band of entrepreneurial businesses, Fakenham is enjoying a renaissance and offers a superb place to call home.
