Offers in the region of: £750,000

An extremely spacious five bedroom detached farmhouse with annex, double garage, gardens and adjoining field totalling over 1/2 an acre.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Standing in generous grounds of over 1/2 an acre is this most impressive detached stone farmhouse. Affording characterful and flexible five bedroom accommodation which includes a ground floor annex, the property may well be of interest to a wide range of buyers including the large family.

Including generous gardens, double garage, summerhouse and adjoining field with views towards Woodsome valley, the property is well located for both Huddersfield and the popular amenities of nearby Kirkburton village.

In brief the accommodation comprises: spacious side Entrance Hall with study/seating space and stairs up to Mezzanine Study/Office/Sitting area, double doors to Bar/Snug with fitted bar area, spacious Living Room with French doors to garden, large Dining Room with feature fireplace and exposed beams, stunning Breakfast Kitchen with farmhouse style units and feature fireplace, secondary Hall with stairs to first floor, Cloaks/w.c and Annex Bedroom including fitted Kitchenette, sitting area and En suite Bathroom.

To the First Floor a spacious landing gives access to three double bedrooms, two having En suites and walk-in wardrobes, House Bathroom furnished with four piece suite and further fifth double bedroom accessed via the Mezzanine study and bedroom three.

Externally, the property stands in generous grounds having driveway provide parking for several vehicles, leading to double detached garage with further gated pedestrian access from Penistone Road to the front. Steps lead down to a terraced patio area with external access to useful basement and additional detached Summerhouse with power and sliding doors (offering several potential uses) while lawned gardens continue to the rear and side. Beyond this can be found a large field with walled and hedged boundaries.
