Welcome to West Village

At the junction of Portland Street and Oxford Street in Manchester City Centre there are four Victorian warehouses that are home to a growing number of like-minded, forward-thinking freelancers, start-ups and established small and medium entrepreneurs.

These businesses not only influence how these buildings work but also give each address its own personality. They reflect how modern businesses operate and have shown us how we needed to adapt the buildings and the spaces within them to service those requirements.

Join the West Village community

By choosing West Village as the home for your business, you get more than 'just an office'.

We're passionate about creating a place where our customers not only want to be but a place where they want to stay.

We certainly don't want to occupy your social calendar seven days a week but throughout the year we will offer networking, cultural, wellness and fitness opportunities for you to get involved in.

This could be anything from a night out at the theatre to an underground beer festival in the car park at 127 Portland Street.

Most of us are guilty of never meeting the people we work alongside every day but with like-minded people right on your doorstep it makes sense to get to know each other better. Who knows, you might find a new customer, supplier or client along the way.

113-115 Portland Street

Meet the first member of the West Village family. 113-115 Portland Street is a stunning, 22,500 sq ft, red brick office building with a Grade II listed status.

On each and every floor you'll find newly refurbished characterful space that compliments its history beautifully.

There are spaces ranging from 850-4,000 sq ft, some with exposed brick and timber beams, and others with sash windows and steel columns. No two spaces are the same.

We understand that not all businesses operate from 9-5, Monday to Friday, so you can access the building 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Wellness basement

We're currently working on a brand new wellness facility at 113-115 Portland Street, which will allow West Village customers to easily factor a workout into their daily routine. This spacious new spin studio will be operated by one of Manchester's premium independent training brands and feature high spec showers and changing facilities

This 35,000 sq ft building is currently fully let and is now home to the Dentsu Aegis Network, with a different one of their network brands on each floor.

As a self-contained customer, they have street-level branding, their own dedicated reception area and a Takk coffee shop. We worked closely with them to inject their own personality into the spaces.

127 Portland Street

Much like the other buildings in West Village the workspaces have been stripped back to expose original features, adding character and personality.

With exposed bricks, beams and original wooden flooring, we've created the perfect blank canvas for any customer to use as a back drop for their future home.

Home of Social Chain and a whole host of other creative minds, each and every space has been designed with the customer in mind, to inspire and encourage collaboration.

Oxford Place

Be inspired in an industrial-cool workspace on our West Village campus.

A vibrant community in a Victorian warehouse, Oxford Place has undergone a dramatic transformation and now offers a fully-refurbished reception area and high-spec workspaces.

One of our four 'West Village' buildings on Oxford Street and Portland Street, the building is a stone's throw from Oxford Road train station and St Peters Square is only a few streets away, making this an ideal location for commuting colleagues and clients.

Ditto Coffee is an evolution of worldwide music distribution Company 'Ditto Music'.

Coffee was what powered founders, Matt and Lee Parsons through the day when they were setting up Ditto Music. The brand now supports over 150,000 artists around the globe and the pair have experienced coffee all over the world. It was falling in love with Melbourne's famous coffee culture that inspired them to take the leap and create a dedicated coffee side to the business. Ditto Coffee brings the brothers' two greatest passions together, creating an environment to support independent musicians and enjoy excellent coffee.

As in all of Ditto's stores, there's an "Artist Dropbox" which encourages local musicians to share their music, and each month an artist is picked for free distribution services from Ditto Music, with acoustic artists also invited to play in store.

Working in the heart of the city

West Village couldn't be in a better place if it tried.

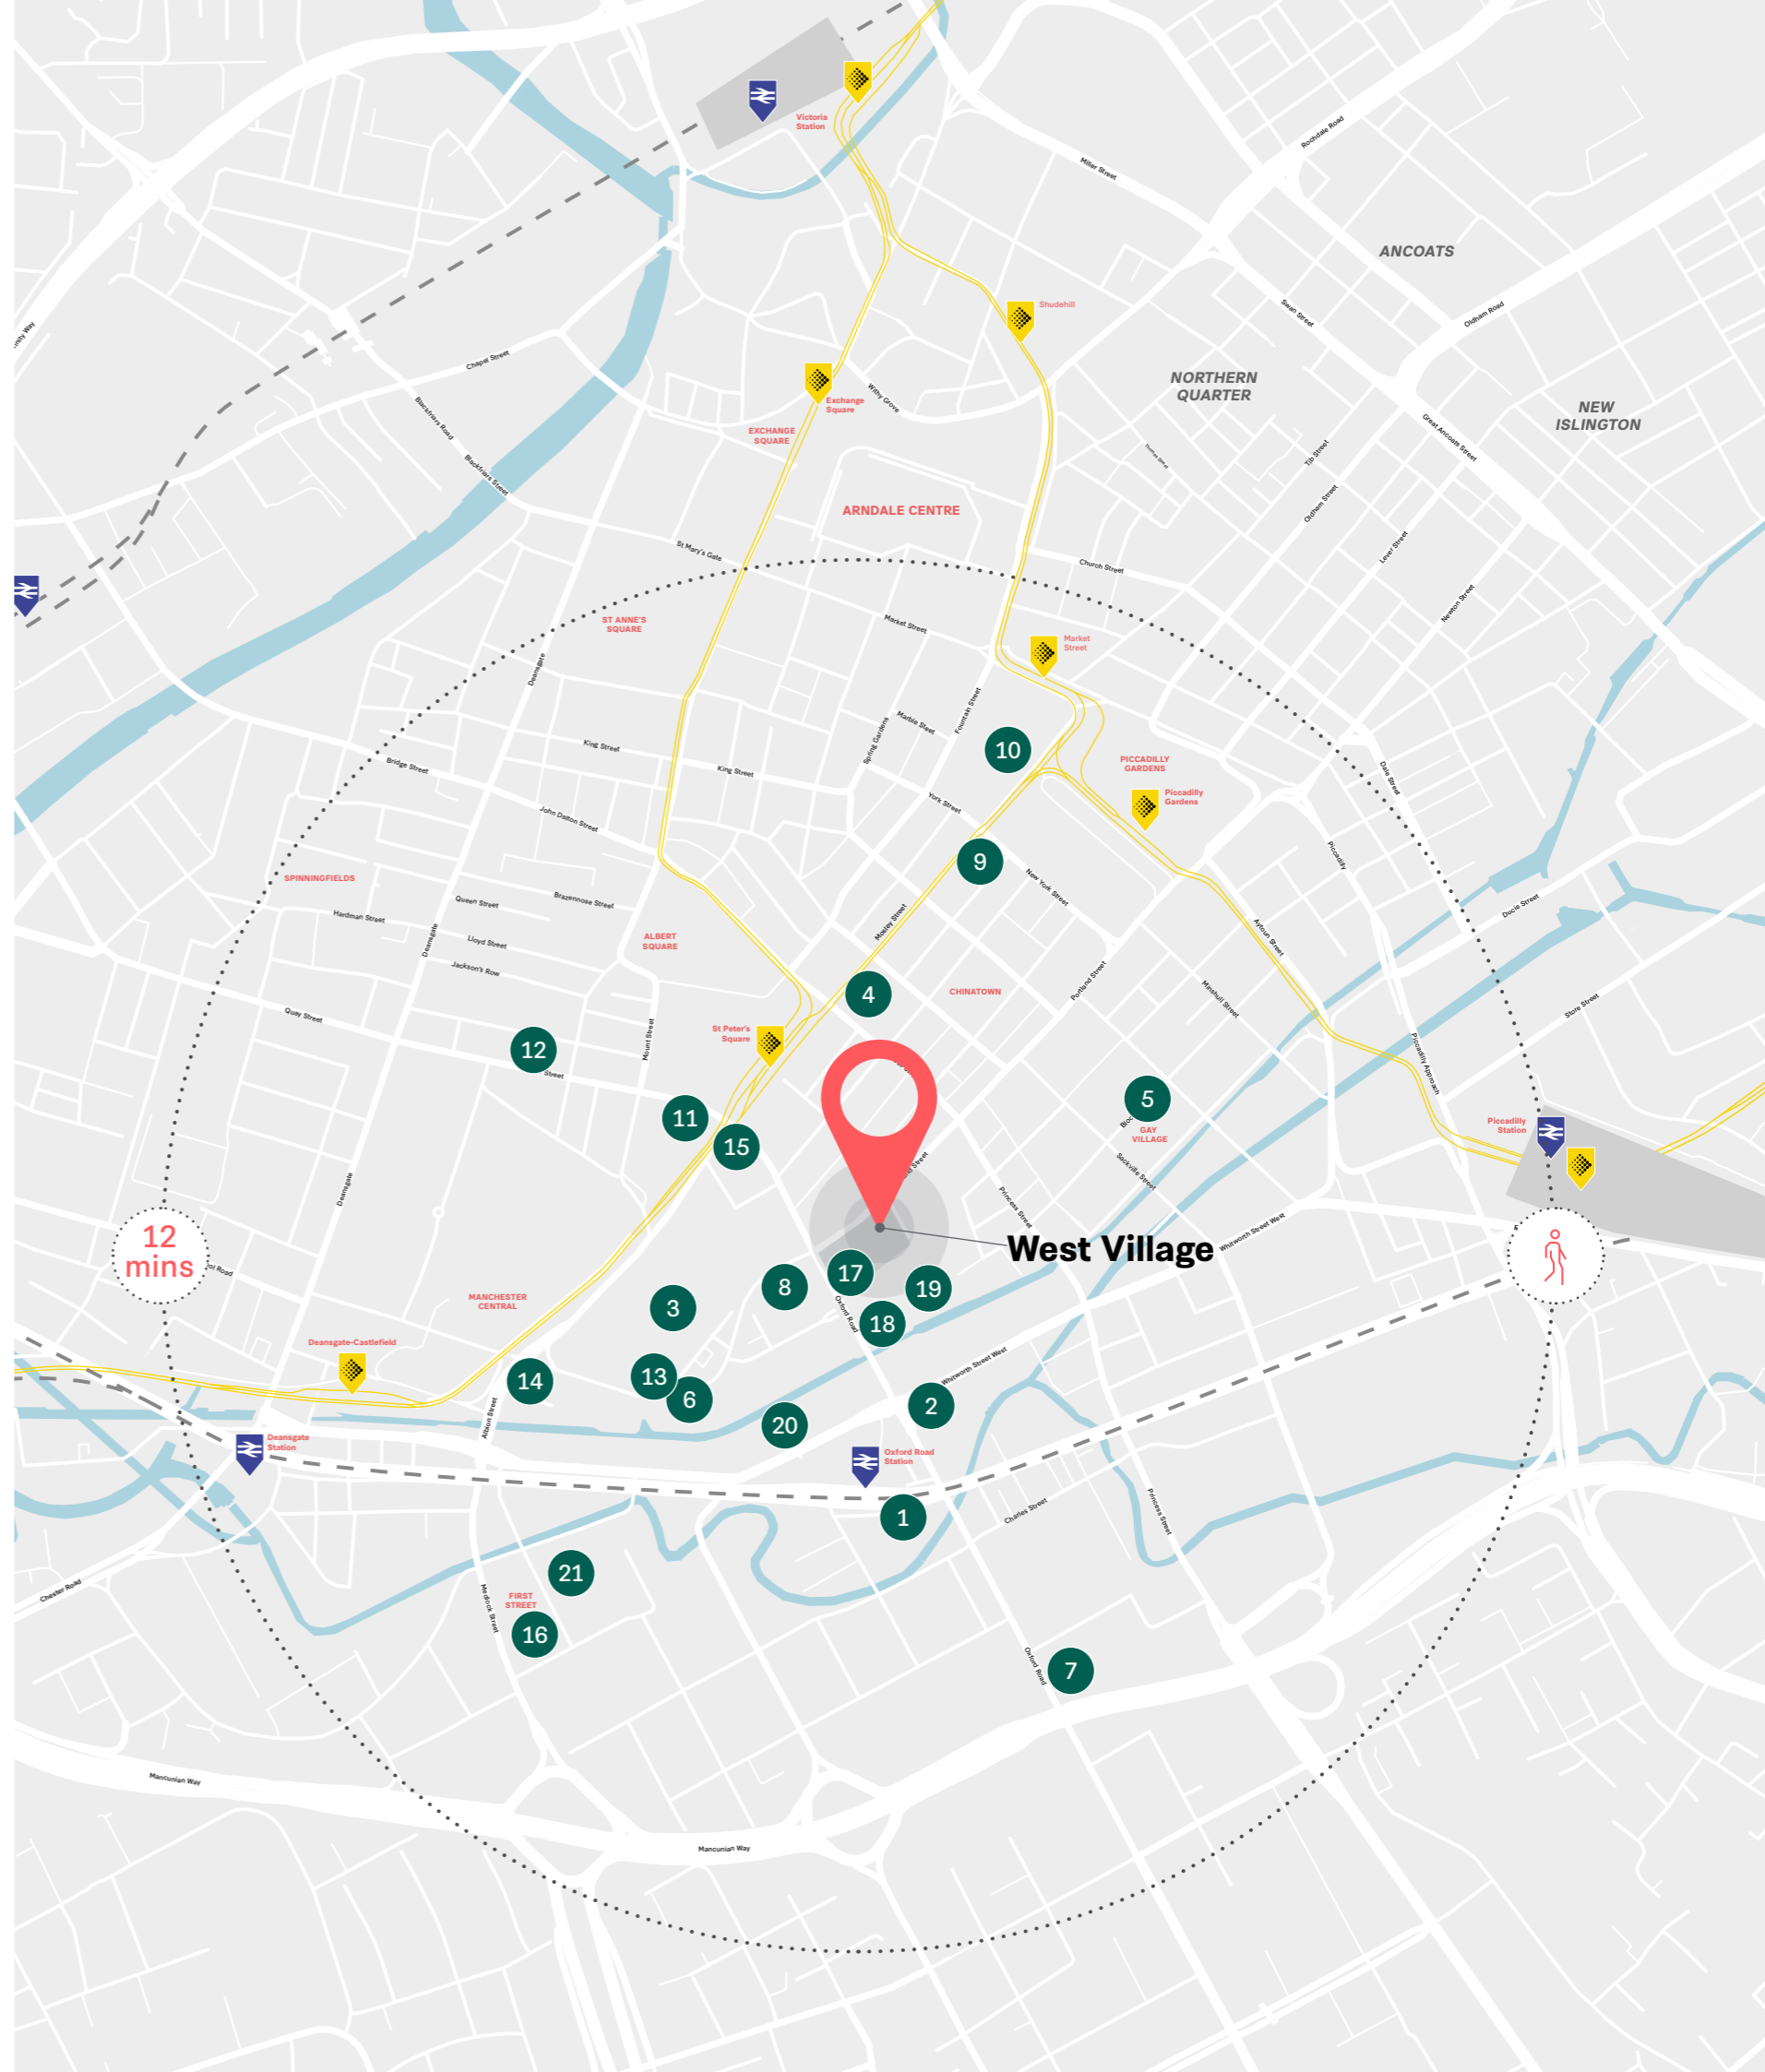

It's within walking distance of three train stations, two Metrolink stops, countless bus stops and can be accessed by car with ease too.

Within a short stroll you will stumble across a plethora of bars, restaurants, shops, theatres and cafes. It really does have it all.

Net Zero Carbon

Committing to a sustainable future

We take creating sustainable environments seriously as we know that we can only fulfil our purpose of 'creating thriving cities' if we can deliver sustainable and environmentally-conscious spaces.

We were the first commercial property partner to sign up to the Green Building Council's Net Zero Carbon Commitment pledge, which aims for new buildings to be net zero carbon by 2030 and older buildings the same by 2050.

We are committed to leading the way with sustainability and we have a range of initiatives in place from waste disposal to using smart technology and using renewable energy to promoting sustainable transport, all with the aim of becoming a more sustainable business.

Our commitment to Net Zero Carbon is one of the reasons we're championing sustainable practices, and it's why we've created a specific set of science based targets to monitor our emissions.

The Carbon Trust helped us define these targets through a process that assessed global emissions, the emissions produced by the property sector, and how much of those emissions we are responsible for. Then, they can estimate how big that portion will be by 2050.

By putting our targets in place, we can monitor and improve our output more efficiently.

We've introduced other measures in the fight against global heating, too:

Smart buildings strategy

We're introducing algorithmic learning into our buildings. Sensors will gather data about heating, lighting and motion to help us use energy more efficiently.

Solar panelling

We already have solar panelling on many of our buildings, but we're stepping up our commitment to solar power by installing batteries to store energy for later use.

Waste processes

Our partnership with B&M Waste is the first step in diverting 100% of our waste from landfill.

Water audits

Reducing water usage saves energy, helping to lower carbon emissions. That's why our Utilities team has carried out water audits across the estate. So far, they've been able to save two Olympic sized swimming pools worth of water per month.

Riser adoption

We're transforming the way we use electricity in our buildings, using specialist risers and voltage optimisation. These measures help us regulate, clean, and condition the incoming power supply, leading to lower energy usage.
