The Kingsway

swansea

Whatever you think -

71/72 has a

space for you _

A landmark development by Swansea Council, 71/72 offers an outstanding work environment – at the heart of The Kingsway redevelopment project in Swansea city centre.

The 104,000 sq ft scheme includes innovative internal and external public spaces with specific areas of the building being offered to the open market to let, comprising, retail, food and beverage spaces, an event hall, flexible / serviced workspace and 47,000 sq ft of impressive Grade A office space.

It's the game-changing work environment for local, national and international businesses in South Wales.

71/72

Whatever you think
71/72 has a space for you

71/72
the place for the big ideas

71/72 forms part of the Swansea Bay City Deal regeneration project with the key objective to target high skilled employment in Swansea city centre.

71/72

Public spaces

Work the way you want to – with public spaces inside and outside the building.

Supporting the vision and values of Swansea Council, that fosters excellence and aspiration the building will provide occupiers with cutting-edge digital communications, making it the ideal location for international, national and local businesses as well as growth and support opportunities for new 'start up' companies in the innovative technology and creative sectors.

This project continues Swansea Council's journey of transforming the city and follows the completion of landmark schemes – the 160ft Copr Bay Bridge and the £135million indoor 3,500 seat indoor arena.

The mixed use development will offer an exceptional digitally-enabled flexible workspace with sustainability at the forefront of the design.

The building will include an impressive roof top terrace and atrias through the upper floors. Meanwhile, the unique public spaces will feature dedicated event areas, meeting spaces and food, beverage and retail outlets.
