Description

An incredible double height warehouse space comprising over 3,000 square feet of inspiring workspace. The design led fit out including a number of glazed meeting rooms, coupled with the abundance of original features including exposed brickwork, exposed columns and polished concrete flooring provide a creative and inspiring place to work.

Benefitting from its own self-contained entrance from Scrutton Street with a ground floor reception area and DDA compliant lift, the space really needs to be seen to fully appreciate the volume and aesthetic - early viewings are recommended.

Location

Shoreditch is London's latest hot spot with a captivating mix of bars, restaurants and art galleries. It has transformed from a commercial district into a thriving metropolis of young media, design and fashion companies. Zetland House is the heart of the area and comprises a community of creative businesses which benefit from the onsite facilities including manned courtyard reception, bookable meeting rooms, Alchemy coffee house, ZCafe deli, gym and nail/hair salon.
