THE COTTAGE

10 Mill Lane is the country cottage many people dream of. A characterful thatch exterior with a beautifully restored light and airy interior. Peacefully tucked away on a picturesque no through lane in the highly desirable village of Great Haseley, this cottage is an absolute delight.

The ground floor accommodation includes an elegant dual aspect sitting room, which has a wonderfully warm and welcoming feel with its wooden boards and wood burning stove. A simply gorgeous room, it is light, bright and full of charm. Through one of the solid oak doors to the well proportioned kitchen with traditional Aga and quarry tiled flooring that runs through to the adjoining utility room and ground floor bathroom. The kitchen has been thoughtfully designed to work around the property's characterful corners. There is also access to the cellar. Beyond the kitchen is a brick and stone store. Planning has been granted to demolish the existing store and to replace it with a new Oak framed garden room (planning reference - P10/W0800/LB).

Upstairs the charm continues and beams abound. The principal bedroom is extremely generous with a staggering vaulted ceiling and lots of cupboard space. There is a 2nd double bedroom and a smaller single bedroom or study (accessed via bedroom 2). The beautifully fitted shower room completes the upstairs.

Outside there is a great size low maintenance south east facing garden. The garden is mostly laid to lawn and is a fantastic space to enjoy this tranquil setting. Parking to the front is the last tick in the box for this sensational find. The cottage is a chance to feel a world away in an incredibly desirable location but remain a stone's throw from modern life.
