Conveniently located for access into the Telford Town Park which is an area of approximately 170 hectares of parkland, walks, nature reserve, Silkin Way and Sturchley Chimney – a waypoint for the South Telford Heritage Trail and serving the former Ironworks – an important reminder to the history of the area. Randlay Centre is close by with a convenience store, public house and community centre. Randlay Primary School is also conveniently placed for the property. Telford Town Centre can be accessed by walking through the Town Park or approx. 1.5 miles by road and offers an excellent range of shops and leisure facilities, Railway and Bus Stations and access to the M54.

Brief Description

Viewing is essential to appreciate this beautifully presented, contemporary styled Detached House. The accommodation comprises Entrance Hall, refitted Cloakroom, stairs to the first floor and door to the garage. Off to the right is the Lounge with a window to front, double doors opening into the Dining Room and double doors through to the Conservatory at the rear. The Kitchen has been stylishly refitted with a range of units, working surfaces, inset sink unit, electric oven and hob; an opening leads into the Utility with a range of matching units and door out to the rear garden.

Stairs ascend to the first floor Landing where there are four bedrooms, the Master Bedroom has a refitted En-Suite Shower Room with three piece. The Bathroom has also been refitted with a white three piece suite. Internally, the property benefits from gas central heating and double glazing.

Externally, the property is approached over a tarmacadam driveway and an up-and-over door provides access into the Garage. The rear garden is a particular feature of this property, having been landscaped with a large patio area, edged by sleepers with raised bed with a range of established shrubs.
