Description

If you are looking for convenience and security then this smart, two-bedroom ground floor apartment in Locks Heath is worth viewing. According to Google Maps it will take just 5 minutes to walk through to the Locks Heath Centre via Hedera Road opposite so whether it's lunch at the Strawberry Tavern or nipping out to pick up a paper or your morning coffee this could not be a better location.

To the front of the property ample visitor parking is available, you have your own allocated parking space located at the rear of the block. Entrance into the property is via a video entry phone system. There is a small vestibule off the communal hallway then opens into your own hallway, which has an airing cupboard and separate cupboard housing the boiler. Practical wood effect laminate flooring runs through the hall into the kitchen and living room, which in addition to the smooth ceilings creates a lovely modern feel to the apartment.

The main bathroom is half tiled and fitted with a white suite, complete with a heated towel rail. Further down the hallway you will find the master bedroom which has an ensuite with modern white suite and heated towel rail. Please note the freestanding wardrobe in the master bedroom is to remain. The second bedroom is also a good double room.

The living room has plenty of space for a lounge suite as well as a dining table. It is open plan to the kitchen which is fitted with a range of wall and base units with contrasting work tops, there is a built in electric oven with a gas hob and an integrated fridge/freezer with spaces for the washing machine and dishwasher.

Other information

Please note this property is leasehold, the 125 year lease commenced 1st January 2004 with a ground rent of £150 per year. The building is managed by Home Property Management Ltd and there is a service charge of £1,740 per annum. There is no forward chain here.
