Backing into farmland, this three bedroom mid terrace house in the hamlet of Cootham has been modernised and improved by the current owner and is situated within a private development of similar houses and bungalows, plenty of residents parking and its own garage in a nearby block. The bustling village of Storrington is only a mile away, offering a wide range of shops, pubs, cafes, restaurants and takeaways, preschool and nurseries, a primary school, doctors and dentists. Wonderful walks and bike rides into the South Downs are close by and there is a warm and welcoming pub, The Crown Inn, just around the corner from the property.

Set back behind a small front garden, this welcoming home features a ground floor cloakroom / WC, kitchen with ample food preparation and storage space and a lounge/dining room which opens onto the rear garden. Upstairs, the shower room was replaced about three years ago and the main bedroom features Sharps built in furniture and a view of the South Downs. Bedrooms two and three have wonderful views across the neighbouring fields and there is a warm sense of community within the development.

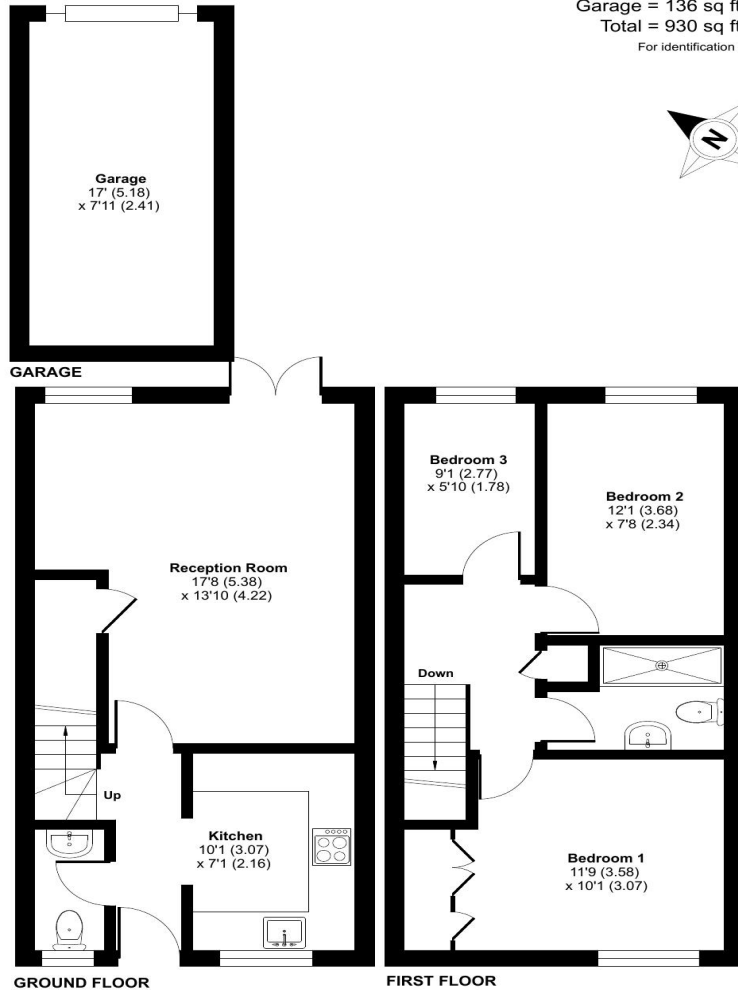

This low maintenance house has a combi boiler and would make a great first time or investment buy, being really economical to run.
