Situation

Fernbank is set in an elevated position of Crown Lane, approached over a Tarmacadam driveway providing off-road parking and an attached double garage to the front. There is useful covered frontage to the entrance of the bungalow. This three-bedroom property is in need of modernisation and offers lots of potential being set in a ¼ acre plot. The property has oil fire central heating and there is private drainage to septic tank shared by 4 properties. There is a lean to rear porch area with access from the kitchen and the garage and there are useful garden stores to the rear together with a green house.

Defford is approximately 2 miles from Pershore and gives easy access to all main centres, there is a Norman Church and a first School within the village. A modern village hall for an active community.

The market town of Pershore is Georgian styled and provides high street shopping facilities and supermarket together with a leisure complex and central car parks. The river Avon runs to the east of the town lending itself to scenic walks and leisure pursuits. There are two medical centres and hospital and town library, together with excellent educational facilities within the area. Pershore has Number 8 which is run by voluntary help and provides theatre activities, a cinema, ballet and yoga classes and is very much a part of Pershore community living.

The new Worcestershire Parkway Station has been developed to improve the access and destinations to the south west, the north east, London and the Thames Valley. So significantly enhancing Worcestershire's connectivity to outlying regions. The motorway is approximately eleven miles distant at Worcester junction 7 of the M5, bringing Birmingham to the north and Bristol to the south within commutable distance. Other main centres are Stratford-upon-Avon with the theatre and racecourse; Cheltenham with National Hunt Horseracing, the Everyman Theatre and major shopping facilities; Worcester with its famous Cathedral and equally famous cricket club together with the River Severn and main shopping centre.
