Description

Chestnut Way is a great location for bringing up your family, especially if you love the outdoors with lovely walks on your doorstep, and there's a bus stop giving independence if you choose to leave the car at home.

The pretty front garden with its raised oak borders has a pathway leading to the entrance porch. This handy room, with bench box storage, is perfect for hiding away shoes. And with access to the garden, it's ideal for popping the muddy dog in the garden after a lovely walk.

All rooms are arranged off the hallway, which has a generous storage cupboard and stairs leading up. The kitchen has an industrial feel and is fitted with white units with a sink overlooking the cul-de-sac.

The living/dining room has a cosy feel with a recess housing an electric log-style burner with a marble hearth and an oak mantle. The parquet flooring finishes the look.

Two further downstairs rooms are arranged as a large bedroom, and a snug which has French doors to the garden. A fully tiled bathroom with a modern bright white suite is perfect for dunking the dog, bathing the children, or taking a relaxing soak when time allows.

Upstairs, the landing has a super handy deep cupboard. The two bedrooms each have wardrobes, and share the modern shower room, which is fitted with a corner shower, vanity basin with drawers, WC and anti-slip flooring.

Outside, the block paved patio gives lots of space for your garden furniture, and the summer house is a great retreat to enjoy your morning cuppa. Steps lead to the back gate and there is a personal door to the garage, which has two parking spaces in front.

Being on a corner plot, and subject to planning permission, there is the potential to extend this cosy family home. We recommend a viewing so that you don't miss the boat here.
